ANALYSIS – my religion

Notes:

Definitions:

- × (Latin: religio, ligo, "to bind together") A way of seeing, thinking, and acting inspired by questions about what things mean: i.e. Where did we come from?, What is our destiny?, What is true?, What is false?, What is my duty or obligation?, What is the meaning of suffering?, What is the meaning of death?, How shall we live?
- × any specific system of belief, worship, or conduct that prescribes certain responses to the existence (or non-existence) and character of God.
- × "Religion is any specific system of belief about deity, often involving rituals, a code of ethics, a philosophy of life, and a worldview." (A worldview is a set of basic, foundational beliefs concerning deity, humanity and the rest of the universe.) Thus we would consider Christianity, Islam, Judaism, Native American Spirituality, and Neopaganism to be religions. We also include Agnosticism, Atheism, Humanism, Ethical Culture etc. as religions, because they also contain a "belief about deity" -- their belief is that they do not know whether a deity exists, or they have no knowledge of God, or they sincerely believe that God does not exist.

Who/What is God?

Do you personally know God?

Do I truly have a relationship with God? (YES/NO) If so

(a) Why do you say so?

(b) What type of relationship is it?

(c) Why do you have this relationship?

What good qualities do I have that make this world a better place, and people better off for knowing me?

Note to myself: The measure of reality of the above confessions in my life. - Will I willingly miss my favourite TV program to catch up with God? Am I eager to meet with other Godly people? If necessary will I change my life style in order make God a bigger and more integral part of my life? Can and do my peers say with reference to my life, "now there's an example of Christian, Biblical living"?

Other Notes:

Belief system: My choice

Fact: Proverbs 16 vs 25, Isaiah 55 vs 8-9

Note to self: Whether I believe in the God of the Bible or not, life happens to us all - good and bad happens to both Christian and Non-Christian alike (Matt 5 vs 45) The issue really is that we all have similar experience w.r.t. love and acceptance, heartache and joy, whether or not we believe in/ and serve Christ. The difference with someone with a true relationship with God is that with or without these things, their lives have purpose... and there are millions of testimonies to vouch for this.

What is required of me in order to know God?

FUTURE STRATAGY – the way forward

What are my life's desires? Matthew 13 vs 44-46, Matthew 5 vs 6

A Serious decision: Luke 9 vs 57-62, Luke chapter 14 (with special reference to vs 28)

Other Notes:

Notes to self -

- x Life is too short and eternity too long to get all this wrong
 - x The great thing is that when serving God the cost is temporal but the reward eternal where as with Satan the reward is temporal but the cost eternal.
